

The Lynchburg Region's Leadership Laboratory...

Where you can learn and practice team building, conflict resolution, effective public speaking and leadership!

FOCUS

on your personal and professional goals while practicing the skills you want to enhance.

CONNECT

with more than 30 other "up and coming" business leaders as well as influential regional decision makers.

GROW

in knowledge about the region, critical issues in our community and as a person.

Leadership  Lynchburg37

The Approach:

- A TEAM environment bringing together diverse participants to address pressing community issues while utilizing valuable leadership skills.

The Schedule:

- The class meets together once a month for nine months beginning in September.
- Teams meet between sessions to work on projects and team building.
- Two retreats, an adventure course and nine sessions designed to foster personal and professional growth.

The Benefits:

- Resume' builder
- Earn 8 CEU credits
- Make new personal and professional contacts that could last a lifetime.
- Build your leadership tool kit - enhance your skills and become more influential!
- Be in the know - expand your awareness of the region.

Download a Leadership Lynchburg Application at www.lynchburgchamber.org